Plan It!

Guitar Lessons Made Simple takes the individual into account. Rather than follow the method book to the T, we’ll apply those same learning principles to YOUR goals. Physically writing them out can help you set a plan in your mind to accomplish them. Student and teacher will work together to set forth the goals and then ROCK them.

Practice makes perfect! I’d recommend 15-20 minutes a day to start. Work your way to 30 minutes to half an hour. If you do happen to miss a few days, don’t get discouraged. Just pick up where you left off!

“Obstacles are things a person sees when he takes his eyes off his goal.”
— E. Joseph Cossman

“It is good to have an end to journey toward; but it is the journey that matters, in the end.”
— Ernest Hemingway

“The most important thing about art is to work. Nothing else matters except sitting down every day and trying.”
— Steven Pressfield, The War of Art: Break Through the Blocks & Win Your Inner Creative Battles
